Dr. Karni Singh Federation Cup – Roller Derby is a prestigious national Roller Derby championship organised by the Roller Skating Federation of India (RSFI) and hosted by the Rajasthan Roller Skating Association in Bikaner, Rajasthan. RSFI, established in 1955 and recognised by the Indian Olympic Association (IOA) and affiliated with World Skate, has been at the forefront of developing roller sports across India. This championship reflects RSFI's commitment to promoting Roller Derby as one of the country's fastest-growing and most exciting roller sports disciplines.

The Federation Cup provides a golden opportunity for Roller Derby athletes from across India to compete at the highest national level, gain valuable competitive experience, and showcase their talent. With the sport rapidly expanding nationwide, this event serves as a vital platform to inspire new players, strengthen state teams, and elevate the standard of Indian Roller Derby. Beyond competition, it celebrates sportsmanship, teamwork, and the vibrant spirit of Rajasthan, making it a landmark event in the growth of Roller Derby in India.

DR. KARNI SINGH JI

Dr. Karni Singh Ji (1924–1988) was one of India's most distinguished sports personalities, parliamentarians, and philanthropists. As the last Maharaja of Bikaner, he dedicated his life to public service and represented the people of Bikaner as an Independent Member of Parliament for 25 years (1952–1977). He was widely admired for his integrity, leadership, and commitment to the development of sports, education, and rural welfare.

A legendary marksman, Dr. Karni Singh was a pioneer of Indian shooting sports. He became the first Indian sportsperson to represent the country at five Olympic Games (1960, 1964, 1968, 1972, and 1980) in clay target shooting. He won the National Shooting Championship 17 times, earned a silver medal at the 1962 World Shooting Championships, won medals at the Asian Games, and played a vital role in promoting shooting as a competitive sport in India. His extraordinary contributions are commemorated through the renowned Dr. Karni Singh Shooting Range in New Delhi, one of India's premier international shooting venues.

Dr. Karni Singh Ji's life remains a shining example of excellence, discipline, patriotism, and selfless service. His remarkable achievements in sports, public life, and nation-building continue to inspire generations of athletes and leaders, making him a true icon of Indian sporting and public history.

Bikaner – The Desert Jewel of Rajasthan

Located in the heart of the Thar Desert, Bikaner is one of Rajasthan's most vibrant heritage cities, renowned for its magnificent forts, grand palaces, colorful culture, and warm hospitality. Founded in 1488 AD by Rao Bika, a Rathore prince and son of Rao Jodha of Jodhpur, Bikaner flourished as an important trading center on the ancient caravan routes connecting Central Asia with Gujarat. Today, it is celebrated for its rich history, architectural marvels, camel heritage, and world-famous delicacies such as Bikaneri Bhujia and sweets.

Bikaner showcases the true essence of Rajasthani culture through its folk music, traditional dance, handicrafts, camel festivals, and vibrant fairs. Iconic attractions include the majestic Junagarh Fort, Lalgarh Palace, Karni Mata Temple (Deshnoke), National Research Centre on Camel, and numerous beautifully carved havelis. The city's blend of royal heritage and desert charm makes it one of Rajasthan's most captivating tourist destinations.

Bikaner is well connected by air, rail, and road. The nearest major airport is Maharaja Ganga Singh Airport (Bikaner), located about 15 km from the city centre, with additional connectivity available through Jodhpur Airport (approximately 250 km) and Jaipur International Airport (approximately 335 km). Bikaner Junction Railway Station serves as the city's main rail hub, offering direct connections to major Indian cities. An excellent network of national and state highways also connects Bikaner to Rajasthan and neighboring states, making travel by road convenient and comfortable.
